

Scoring guidelines

Fight Number:

Stage:

Problem:

Reporter

Contents	Presentation	Discussion
<ul style="list-style-type: none"> - physical correctness - relevance of discussed arguments for the task - application of scientific methods - experiment, theory and their agreement - convincing conclusions 	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> - evident structure - clear explanation of formulae and symbols - correct models, conformity of dimensions - visual material (on-site experiments, audio and video) - clear speech - references 	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> - physical correctness - relevance of the arguments - appropriate and solid knowledge of physics - objective argumentation - discussing the objections of opponent - good and respectful manner - answers to questions of reviewer and final statement - jury questions and answers
Points (0-4)	Points (0-2)	Points (0-3)
Extra point (0-1)		Total (0-10)

Opponent

Questions / Presentation	Discussion
<ul style="list-style-type: none"> - relevance of the questions - physical correctness - clear and understandable - shows strong and weak points of the report 	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> - physical correctness - relevance of the arguments - appropriate and solid knowledge of physics - discussing the facts of the report - good and respectful manner - answers to questions from reviewer and jury
Points (0-4)	Points (0-5)
Extra Point (0-1)	Total (0-10)

Reviewer

Review of Reporter	Review of Opponent
<ul style="list-style-type: none"> - relevance of questions - points out the essential pluses and minuses of physical content and argumentation 	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> - relevance of questions - points out the essential pluses and minuses of physical content and argumentation
Points (0-3)	Points (0-3)
<ul style="list-style-type: none"> - gives a thorough overview of the stage - discusses facts and avoids contradictions
Points (0-3)
Extra Point (0-1)	Total (0-10)

The extra point can be used to compensate for the overall impression of the teams' performance.